

God is love

I recently posted the following comment on a Calvinist/Arminian discussion forum:

"God is love, and if you don't believe it He will burn you in Hell for all eternity."

No one in that discussion forum challenged the truth of my absurd post. Instead, they offered many scriptures in support of it. Can you imagine? This was a site where both Calvinists and Arminians post, each accusing the other of blasphemy for their respective theologies, while both sides subscribe to the biggest blasphemy of all, accusing God of being unloving and unforgiving.

"Dear friends, let us love one another, for love comes from God. Everyone who loves has been born of God and knows God." 1 John 4:7

"And so we know and rely on the love God has for us. God is love. Whoever lives in love lives in God, and God in them." 1 John 4:16
