

Is It Possible to Experience Parallel Lives?

God, or Universal Consciousness, is actually living parallel lives as each of us. As individual aspects of divine consciousness, we would most certainly have the experience of living parallel lives. At some level, we are all connected. As our thinking progresses and our consciousness "expands" we will become more and more aware of these various seemingly separate life experiences and realize that they are all just a part of a greater whole.