

Where good theology begins

Take delight in the Lord, and He will give you the desires of your heart. I believe it pleases God for us to have a loving relationship with Him. It pleases God to give good things to His children and answer our cries for help, when life becomes too much for us to handle. If we are going to establish and maintain a healthy and loving relationship with God, it must be based on grace, not works. That is not to say that good works are not important, but we begin with grace. We begin by establishing that loving relationship. We begin by recognizing that God is more loving and kind than any human father.